Lesley Dimmick and George Stavrous

Long time friends through art, Lesley and George have been active in both exhibiting art, and helping others to present their creativity at TAP Gallery, an independent arts centre in Darlinghurst.

January is the only time of year which enables Lesley dedicated time to focus on her own art, and George has been working on his latest series throughout 2024.

The pair are participants of the Running TAP [1990-2015] book project, which is a wide-ranging archive of an independent artist run organisation devoted to art and artists in Sydney, known as TAP Gallery. The book is set to be released later in the year. To find out more visit: <https://www.runningtap.com.au/>

Lesley Dimmick is the Manager of TAP Gallery, practicing artist and teacher. George Stavrous is a casual Gallery assistant, performance artist and curator.

“As founder of TAP Art Gallery which is a registered non-profit organisation I have volunteered my services for nearly 30 years... These years have gone so fast and have been a joy, meeting so many talented artists who have become lifelong friends.”
